Dear Parishioners and Friends of Saint Andrew's,

We are now in the Easter season. Our life experiences are similar to the experiences of Jesus that led him to the cross, to his death, and to his coming to life again three days later. Jesus' experiences at the cross came first, but he rose again to his glory. He tasted this victory for us and ahead of us so we can know that victory is available for those who believe in Him. If you feel like you are at Calvary in your current experiences, you are not alone; Jesus has been there, and he is extending his hands to you with a loving face to bring you up to new life in Him. The works of our adversary are always looking to get us down. We are to be prudent when dealing with our emotions, prudent as to how we handle adversity because the evil one is always looking to discourage us in our journey. We are people of Easter, people of the light; we will handle adversity like a champ, and we will arm ourselves with genuine faith and love despite our inward churnings. The saints who went ahead of us experienced much worse because they lost their lives while being firm in their faith and courageous in their love of others, enemies included. Be of great courage, the Lord is with you no matter where you find yourself, whether it's at Calvary or at Emmaus Road.
