Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Lent is almost over, and as we celebrate together Palm Sunday, Jesus will descend from the Mount of Olives towards Jerusalem, and the crowds will lay their clothes on the ground to welcome him as he triumphantly enters Jerusalem. Perhaps, like the crowd, there will be things in our lives that we will lay down under Jesus' feet so we can be ready to go into Holy Week, our most solemn and sacred time of the Christian year. We are invited in our liturgical tradition to contemplate the events leading up to Jesus' crucifixion and death. But more than that, we are also invited to take these liturgies into our own hearts and consider what they might mean for us in this moment, opening ourselves to the possibility of grace and transformation. Please look at the schedule again and plan to attend with your family. I am looking forward to being together with you and sharing this, our Christian heritage, with joy and excitement. One of the joys of Easter is the service of The Great Vigil of Easter. It will be on Holy Saturday at 7 PM, and we will recount the Salvation History through Holy Scripture. It will be a time for us to renew our renunciation of the claims of the world, the flesh, and the devil, as well as to reaffirm our faith in the Lord and to recommit ourselves to him. In the ancient Church, those who were repentant were accepted back into the community of faith, and many others were baptized or confirmed at this time. Usually, the service ends with great celebration and Holy Eucharist. We will be able to say our "Alleluias" proudly and loudly: Alleluia, the Lord is risen! He is risen indeed! On Easter morning, we will have three services as usual, but the 2nd service at 9:30 AM will be outside, weather permitting, and hopefully our children can do a traditional egg hunt after the service. We wish you and your family a happy Easter! May you know the joy of the risen Lord! May you feel the hope of new beginnings! May the risen Christ bring you and your family abundant love and happiness.

Fr. Christian
