Dear St. Andrew's Parishioners and Friends,

We are now in the middle of Lent, and I hope and trust that your walk with God is going well and that you are growing deeper and deeper in the knowledge and love of Christ and experiencing ongoing conversion. If you have adopted a spiritual discipline at the beginning of Lent, how is it going? I hope and pray that you continue to persevere, no matter how many obstacles and challenges come your way. Think of the journey of our Lord Jesus Christ towards the Cross to redeem us. Our Lenten season will soon lead us into Holy Week in the middle of April. It is a time of deep reflection, a time to revisit the life of Christ our Lord in His last week before the crucifixion. We will walk with Christ, identifying with Christ's journey to the Cross and then celebrate together triumphally the resurrection on Easter Sunday. My own spiritual journey this Lenten season led me to understand my own spiritual growth as I tried to discover myself: I read Stillness Speaks by Eckhart Tolle as well as The Gift of Yourself by David Benner. I also attempted to understand my number in the Enneagram so that I can fully understand things in my life that act as an obstacle to realizing my full potential to connect with God as my true self. I am grateful Fr. Jeff suggested it, because it helped a great deal in noticing where I have been and where I am now spiritually. Let us continue our Benedictine spirituality together as a community and be built in Christ with deeper roots.

— Fr. Christian
