FROM FR. JEFF ON HOLY COMMUNION

Thanks be to God that we can have Eucharist again. We will receive Holy Communion outside. After the Eucharistic Prayer, the priest will take the consecrated bread out the (south) side door. Communicants will exit through the same door, then proceed to the communion station on the corner of Mulberry and Walnut. After receiving communion, re-enter the church via the brick walkway ("Lucia's Way") and return to your pew for prayer. After the service, please wipe down your pew. Remember to social-distance.

DIOCESAN CONVENTION

The 39th Convention of the Diocese of WTN will be held by virtual teleconference on Nov 20, 1:00–4:00 PM. Several congregations throughout the Diocese have agreed to serve as host sites; our clergy and delegates will be assigned to a particular site. Only three essential items will be covered: (1) voting to fill diocesan offices/positions; (2) passage of 2021 budgets; and (3) an address by the Bishop. We have 3 delegates but need 5 total, plus a couple alternates. Let us know if you can volunteer to serve in this way. All registrations must be done by Oct 15, so please let us know as soon as possible if you want to be a delegate or an alternate delegate.

STEWARDSHIP DRIVE

The annual stewardship mailing for 2021 pledge giving went out on Sept 23. Pledge cards should be returned by Oct 25 so that the 2021 budget can be created realistically. Also, be sure to fill out any information that has changed for your address, phones, e-mail, etc. Let us know if you don't get your mailing. We always have extra forms in the office.

2021 VESTRY ELECTION

We are still accepting nominations for three 2021 vestry members, to be elected in November.

WORSHIP SERVICE SIGN-IN SHEET

Because Saint Andrew's is under the authority of the diocese and the county, etc, we are complying with the request to log attendance for COVID-19 tracking purposes. We are using a blank schematic of the sanctuary. You or the ushers can write your name on the schematic. Ushers may not always know every person's name, so your help is greatly appreciated.
